

CIRCULAR HEAD MAYOR DARYL QUILLIAM'S MESSAGE 23 JANUARY 2018

Plans are well underway for a numbers of events taking place during the next two months. This week we will be announcing the Australia Day award recipients for our district on Thursday evening at 6pm at Tall Timbers, with the Twilight on the Duck again being held on Australia Day at West Esplanade from 4pm with many activities planned for people of all ages.

Another one to look forward to is The Devil Country Muster, which will be held from 16-18 February this year. I know some talented artists are coming to entertain us again, including Beccy Cole and Shane Nicholson and this event promises to be a wonderful weekend. I do hope a large crowd attends so this continues to be an annual event.

The next major event for our district will be the Relay for Life weekend on 16-17 March. This weekend will start at 2pm on the Saturday finishing on Sunday at 10am. This is not only about raising money for cancer sufferers but about us all taking care of our bodies so we can live healthier lives and the early detection of cancer. I would ask we all make plans to support these important events.

There's still time for residents to have their say on the Draft Open Space Sport and Recreation Plan, with public comments closing on Wednesday, January 31. Council held meetings in Smithton and Stanley late last year, while the plans are also available on our website. If you'd still like to provide feedback, comments may be made in writing to the General Manager, PO Box 348, Smithton TAS 7330, via www.circularhead.tas.gov.au/yoursay, or via email to council@circularhead.tas.gov.au
